ORAL JUDGMENT

1. In this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has prayed for appropriate writ, order and/or directions directing the respondents to give admission to the petitioner in the second year Primary Teaching Course, as after the petitioner got admission in first year Primary Teaching Course, according to the petitioner, the rules came to be changed and therefore, the petitioner was not given admission in the second year Primary Teaching Course.

2. This Court while admitting the present petition on 12/10/1999, has granted the following interim relief;-

> "There shall be the interim order directing the respondent to admit the petitioner into second year PTC Course and to permit the petitioner to attend the classes in the said course, subject to fulfillment of the condition regarding payment of fees; and also to permit the petitioner to appear in the examination which may be held from time to time....”

3. In view of the aforesaid interim relief, the petitioner got admission in the second year Primary Teaching Course and even the petitioner must have been permitted to appear in the examination and the petitioner must have completed second year Primary Teaching Course. In view of the above interim relief, nothing further is required to be done by this court except passing order that the interim order be treated as final order. This petition is accordingly allowed. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent.
